

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE STATE OF OREGON

FOR THE COUNTY OF MARION

SANDRA KUCERA, an elector of the State of Oregon and candidate for Vice President of the United States,

SARAH THERESE WINDER, PHILLIP SALISBURY, SAMANTHA BERG, KRISTIN ZUBEL, and NATALIE BOLTON, each an elector of the State of Oregon and signor of a petition for nomination of Ralph Nader for President of the United States and Sandra Kucera as Vice-President of the United States,

Plaintiffs,

v.

BILL BRADBURY, Secretary of State,

Defendant.

Case No. _____

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN SLEVIN

STATE OF OREGON )
 ) ss.
County of Marion )

I, John Slevin, being first duly sworn, do hereby depose and say:

1. I am a professional campaign consultant, and I was retained by Nader for President 2004.

2. As part of my duties I stay current with the polices and practices of the Oregon Secretary of State in implementing and interpreting his rules relating to petition circulators.
3. I organized petition signature gatherers and offered training for "Nader for President 2004."
4. It was my understanding that it is the current policy of the Secretary of State to require that if a circulator makes an error in dating his/her attestation, it is acceptable to correct such error by drawing a single line through the error and re-signing the correction with a full signature.
5. I so instructed petition signature gatherers that I supervised for the collection of signatures for "Nader for President 2004" to follow this practice.
6. I make this affidavit based on my own personal knowledge.

Dated this ____ day of September, 2004.
